LOVE HEALS

REPENT, AND BELIEVE THE GOOD NEWS.

Entrance Antiphon Psalms 95:1, 6

O sing a new song to the Lord;
sing to the Lord, all the earth.

In his presence are majesty and splendour,
strength and honour in his holy place.

First Reading Jonah 3:1-5, 10

Responsorial Psalm Psalms 24:4-9, R v.4

Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Lord, make me know your ways.
Lord, teach me your paths.
Make me walk in your truth, and teach me:
for you are God my saviour.

Remember your mercy, Lord,
and the love you have shown from old.
In your love remember me,
because of your goodness, O Lord.

The Lord is good and upright.
He shows the path to those who stray,
he guides the humble in the right path;
he teaches his way to the poor.

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 7:29-31

Gospel Acclamation Mark 1:15

Alleluia, alleluia!
The kingdom of God is near:
believe the Good News!
Alleluia!

Gospel Mark 1:14-20

Communion Antiphon John 8:12

I am the light of the world, says the Lord;
whoever follows me will not walk in darkness,
but will have the light of life

PLEASE NOTE once you pick up a copy of the newsletter it needs to be taken home with you to ensure we adhere to COVID-19 protocols. Kindly DO NOT leave it behind on your way out once Mass has concluded.

Information desk

The Covid-19 plan: Places of worship must be supervised by a COVID Marshal who must have a copy of their training certificate available when conducting COVID Marshal duties and be clearly identified as a COVID Marshal.

As of December 1, all public buildings have been provided a QR Code. This code is to be scanned using the MySAGov phone app or using the camera on your smart phone.

Arrangements listed below will be in force until further notice: Our Parish is Committed to Health and Safety.

1. Please scan the QR Code located on the door or external wall of the church. If you do not have a smart phone, please write your name & phone number in the Register upon entry.
 2. Use the sanitizing gel provided at the Church entrance.
 3. Sit only in the designated numbered pews in the Church.
 4. Except for families and household groups, people should be at least 2 meters apart.
 5. Holy Communion is given only in the hand.
 6. Ensure that there is the 1.5m distance between you and the person in front when processing for Holy Communion.
 7. Please remember to wipe down the area where you have been sitting/kneeling in the pews and use the sanitizing gel provided on your way out.
 8. Keep the social distancing requirement when leaving the Church after Mass.
 9. Please don't go back to the entrance door. Entry and Exit rule must be followed for your safety.
 10. If you are unwell please consider the health of our community and stay home until you are better.
 11. Your cooperation with these requirements is greatly appreciated.

URGENT: ABORTION BILL UPDATE

Extreme abortion legislation allowing abortion up to birth is before the South Australian Parliament. The 'Abortion to Birth Bill' will be debated in House of Assembly on Tuesday February 2nd, 2021, with a vote expected that week. It is URGENT that parishioners contact their local MP by telephone/letter, plus also Premier Marshall, expressing strong opposition to this horrendous Bill. Enq. Alan & Helen Tyson Ph 83644516 or 0412389875

Walk for Life will be held on Saturday February 6 at Pennington Gardens (Opposite St Peter's Cathedral) walking to Parliament House from 10am – 12noon. For more information visit www.loveadelaide.org.au

DEATH OF ARCHBISHOP EMERITUS

PHILIP WILSON

2nd OCT 1950 – 17th JAN 2021

Archbishop Philip Wilson, who served as Bishop of Wollongong and Archbishop of Adelaide during 45 years of priestly ministry, died in Adelaide Sunday afternoon at the age of 70.

He was ordained a priest of the Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle in 1975 and Ordained Bishop of Wollongong in 1996.

In 2001, he was appointed Archbishop of Adelaide, a post he held until his resignation in 2018. He served as president of the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference for three consecutive terms, from 2006 to 2012.

Archbishop Wilson had suffered a series of health problems in recent years, including cancer. Even so, his death on Sunday was unexpected.

Philip was much loved by people across the country, but especially in the places he served – in Maitland-Newcastle, in Wollongong and here in Adelaide. He made major contributions to the Church and the wider communities in which he ministered, and was seen as a valuable part of the Bishops Conference, including during four years as president of the national assembly of about 40 bishops. "A harrowing period of allegations, charges, conviction and eventually acquittal was a significant chapter on Philip's life, but his record of supporting and advocating on behalf of victims and survivors is part of his legacy. Philip knew what pain many people had endured and suffered as a result of the sickening actions of some within the Church. He was part of the solution, and widely recognised as such." said Archbishop O'Regan.

Archbishop Wilson's Funeral will be celebrated at 11am on Wednesday 3rd February. It will be livestreamed and the link will be on the Archdiocese website (<https://adelaide.catholic.org.au>). There is also an opportunity to pray in the presence of the coffin from 2pm-6.30pm Tuesday 2nd February. There will be 20min time allocations available to book through TryBooking

Come, follow Me...

If God asked you to come and follow Him right now would you be ready to drop everything and follow? In today's Gospel reading that's exactly what happened to Simon and Andrew and James and John. They had been working at their fishing nets when Jesus walked past and called them to follow Him.

We are all called to follow Jesus in some way. God wants some people to give up their lives for others like Jesus did, and some people He wants to look after the poor and sick. Some people are called to care for children and some to build things. Some people are called to be special followers of Our Lord as priests and religious.

Do you know how you can best follow Jesus? When you're young the best way to be like Him is to be kind to everyone and honour and obey your parents like the Child Jesus did. Also, you can already start praying that when the time comes you will be able to follow Our Lord in the way that you can serve Him best.

Answer to front page puzzle: I will make you fishers of men.
2 fishes: 6 time; 5 fishes: 6 time; 7 time.
